

Eudragit® Award 2015

Release your creativity!

As a company at the forefront of innovation, our focus has always been on polymer research and application development. For this reason we are going to reward outstanding scientific works with our Eudragit® Award.

Are you publishing a paper or poster in 2015 that centers on the role, functionality, application or potential of Eudragit® polymers? On ways they make things easier for drug developers, formulators or manufacturers? Or enhance drug bioavailability and efficacy? Or improve patient compliance and quality of life? Or open new horizons in undiscovered territory?

In that case, the Eudragit® Award could put you and your ideas on the map. And a cash prize for your university department ...

Share a dose of your creativity with Eudragit®!

Evonik. Power to create.
